Autumn '20

Dear colleagues!

Many thanks to all of you for following our activities and enjoying our Artists and Projects brochure!

2020 has turned out to be quite different in comparison to our plans: the sudden Corona-crisis has proven to be an incredible challenge for the entire (classical music) world as well as for our agency.

During the last months our artists, partners and the whole RBArtists team have joined forces to make the impossible possible and realize concerts, streamings, recordings and new formats despite of the crisis. We are encouraged and overwhelmed by this creativity and willingness to make things happen!

After several months in our hometown Vienna without travelling, our touring department is very much looking forward to realize the first adapted and newly shaped orchestra touring projects all over Europe, in an 'autumn of possibilities'.

Stay tuned and explore all our exciting projects also on www.rbartists.at!

With kind regards,

Nora & the RBArtists Team

Since its foundation in 2008 the Chamber Orchestra Vienna – Berlin looks back on an unprecedented story of success! Consisting of leading members of the Vienna and Berlin Philharmonic under the artistic direction of Rainer Honeck (concert Master Vienna Phil) the ensemble just released its first Deutsche Grammophon CD.

Together with the exceptional Russian pianist Denis Matsuev the orchestra recorded works by Shostakovich, Schnittke and Lutoslawski.

Sir András Schiff in Salzburg

Sir András Schiff performed two piano recitals at the Salzburg Festival, which is celebrating its 100th anniversary this year. Both programmes focused on the music of Franz Schubert and Leoš Janáček.

RB Artists Looks Forward to an “Autumn of Possibilities”

In the midst of a challenging time for all of us, RB Artists looks forward to the revitalization of cultural life with great hope and anticipation. Having had to change big parts of the original planning due to Covid-19, we welcome a newly formed, but no less exciting Fall 2020. We do everything in our power to make tours happen despite of the circumstances – some of them in smaller form and with adapted programs.

The season starts with a European tour of Staatskapelle Dresden, Myung-Whun Chung and Sir András Schiff, followed by a Czech Philharmonic Orchestra concert at Wiener Konzerthaus under the direction of Semyon Bychkov. The Orchestre Philharmonique de Radio France and Patricia Kopatchinskaja appear in several concerts from Hamburg in the North to Vienna in the South, before the English Baroque Soloists and Sir John Eliot Gardiner set off for Toulouse and Cologne.

In November, the City of Birmingham Symphony Orchestra and its Chief Conductor Mirga Gražinytė-Tyla tour Austria, Germany and the Netherlands to celebrate the orchestra's 100th anniversary. At the same time, Sir András Schiff and his Cappella Andrea Barca visit Central Europe as well as San Sebastián and Alicante, while the Gewandhausorchester, Anne-Sophie Mutter and Andris Nelsons perform at the Wiener Musikverein.

The year ends with a debut for RB Artists just before Christmas, when collaborating with the Orchestra of the Bolshoi Theatre of Russia for the first time.

performed in nine “Home Delivery” concerts streamed from the Ars Electronica Center in Linz during the lockdown.

The programmes featured works and arrangements for four-hand piano and two pianos by the great composers of their time – from the classical period to the present day, including Mozart, Beethoven, Stravinsky, Pärt, Glass, Cage, Schwertsik and Laurie Anderson, combined with real-time visualizations by Cori O’Lan.

Our Artists During Lockdown

The Covid-19 pandemic has presented the classical music industry with its biggest crisis in modern times. During this sudden and unparalleled situation, our artists demonstrated an unprecedented level of initiative and ingenuity in order to keep performing.

Live performance-highlights:

- Ivor Bolton, Francesco Piemontesi, Emmanuel Pahud and Sir Andrés Schiff performed in the 100th anniversary edition of the Salzburg Festival
- Andrés Orozco-Estrada debuted with the Munich Philharmonic
- Emmanuel Tjeknavorian and Julian Rachlin performed at the Grafenegg Festival; both artists were also among the first to perform at the Wiener Musikverein following the lockdown

Online performances:

- Gautier Capuçon appeared in 56 streams from his apartment in Paris
- Marie Jacquot gave her debut with Munich Radio Orchestra as part of a TV production
- Daniel Müller-Schott performed twice at the #netzspielsommer of the Festspiele Mecklenburg-Vorpommern
- Ivor Bolton, Gautier Capuçon, François Leleux, Francesco Piemontesi, Julian Rachlin and Antoine Tamestit participated in Dresdener Musikfestspiele’s 24-hour concert “Music never Sleeps”
- Kirill Gerstein and Daniel Müller-Schott performed in Daniel Hope’s concert series “Hope@Home”

Thank you to all partners and presenters for these opportunities, and let’s continue to make music during these challenging times – because

Music Director of the Wiener Symphoniker

Colombian conductor Andrés Orozco-Estrada starts his first season as Music Director of the Wiener Symphoniker.

He opens the season at the Wiener Konzerthaus with works by Korngold, Schreker and Strauss and at the Musikverein with Haydn’s The Creation. Furthermore, the orchestra is due to tour through Germany with its new Music Director.
