Spring '20

Dear colleagues!

Many thanks to all of you for following our activities and enjoying our Artists' and Projects' brochure!

2019 ended on a sad note with Mariss Jansons passing away. We will always remember him full of gratitude and admiration as the wonderful artist, musician, friend and human being he was.

Looking ahead we face a very special year for Raab & Böhm: 2020 marks our 50th Anniversary – 50 years full of music for which we are deeply grateful to all our artists, partners, supporters, employees and which make us indeed feel proud! A year in which we will look back at compelling moments in the company's history, but also ahead, always under our motto „Music matters“.

Stay tuned and explore all our exciting projects such as opening the 100-year-edition of Salzburg Festival with Mirga Gražinytė-Tyla and her CBSO, touring Russia with four different orchestras, presenting more than 150 touring concerts all over Europe, supporting our artists in reaching new heights and much more!

Looking forward to an exciting year together!

With kind regards,

Nora & the RBArtists Team

Chamber Orchestra Vienna – Berlin releases first DG CD

@DGclassics

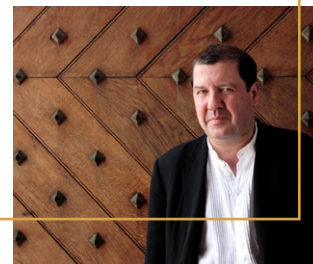

Since its foundation in 2008 the Chamber Orchestra Vienna – Berlin looks back on an unprecedented story of success! Consisting of leading members of the Vienna and Berlin Philharmonic under the artistic direction of Rainer Honeck (concert Master Vienna Phil) the ensemble just released its first Deutsche Grammophon CD.

Together with the exceptional Russian pianist Denis Matsuev the orchestra recorded works by Shostakovich, Schnittke and Lutoslawski.

New signings @rbartists

The renowned British conductor, Ivor Bolton has joined R&B for general management. Former Chief Conductor of Mozarteum Orchestra Salzburg, Ivor is currently Chief Conductor of Sinfonieorchester Basel and Music Director of Teatro Real Madrid.

La Cetra Barockensemble & Vocal Ensemble Basel meets Mozart

The Swiss Ensemble made their first appearance this January in Salzburg at the Salzburg Mozart Week. The Great Mass in C minor by Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart was performed by the baroque specialist and their own choir led by the young talented Carlos Federico Sepúlveda.

Salzburg Mozart Week on Tour – the journey continues

After the premier of bringing the Salzburg Mozart week on Tour last year to France and Romania, the journey will continue in 2020. Germany, Switzerland and Belgium are the next stops – follow Rolando Villazón and the project throughout the world. #RBonTour Julian Rachlin's contract as Principal Conductor of the Turku Philharmonic Orchestra was recently extended until 2021 / 2022.

In the current season he also conducts the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, City of Birmingham Symphony Orchestra, Russian National Orchestra, Warsaw Philharmonic and Royal Liverpool Philharmonic.

Cappella Andrea Barca started their Da Ponte Cycle at the Mozart Week

#cappellaandrearbarca #mozart
#daponte #figaro #rbontour

Sir András Schiff and his Cappella Andrea Barca made a tremendous impact with "Le Nozze di Figaro" at the Felsenreitschule in Salzburg. It was the first of three parts of their Da Ponte Cycle at the prestigious Mozart Week. The Felsenreitschule was filled to the last seat and it was an entertaining like opera evening at a musically top level. The soloists presented themselves in terms of sound flawless.

Even the smaller roles were cast with real Mozart voices. Florian Boesch gave a sparkling "Conte di Almaviva", while Regula Mühlemann acted as a lively and charmed "Susanna". Julien van Mellaerts in the title role and Angela Brower as "Cherubino" sounded balanced and acted very entertaining. This also applies to Christiane Karg as "Countess". With the powerful bass Maurizio Muraro as "Bartolo and Antonio", Marie McLaughlin as "Marcellina", Angelo Pollak as "Don Basilio and Don Curzio" and the crystal-clear Julia Lezhneva as "Barbarina", this soloist ensemble is completed, and is one which one doesn't experience every year.

RBArtists is looking forward to summer festival tours 2020

In the middle of a difficult time for the entire (not only) classical music world, RBArtists is looking forward to the festival season 2020 with great hope and anticipation.

We are expecting a brilliant start with Mirga Gražinytė-Tyla and her City of Birmingham Symphony Orchestra at the 100th anniversary of the Salzburg Festival before the orchestra joins the Lucerne Festival in August. In the same month residencies of the London Symphony Orchestra under Sir Simon Rattle and the St. Petersburg Philharmonic Orchestra with Maestro Yuri Temirkanov at the Grafenegg Festival on the futuristic open-air stage Wolkenturm on the grounds of Grafenegg Castle follow. The Russian orchestra, rich in tradition, continues its journey north and ends after concerts at the Schleswig-Holstein Musik Festival in Finland with the Helsinki Festival.

In addition to the CBSO, the Sächsische Staatskapelle Dresden will perform at the Lucerne Festival with Christian Thielemann. Another highlight in Switzerland is the Festival Septembre Musical Montreux-Vevey, which this year is dedicated to the guest country Austria.

RBArtists is looking forward to spending almost a whole week on Lake Geneva with concerts by the Volksoper Vienna, Florian Boesch and excerpts from this year's Salzburg Mozart Week (including Camerata Salzburg | François Leleux, Rolando Villazón, Emmanuel Tjeknavorian, Vienna Symphony | Andrés Orozco-Estrada | Rudolf Buchbinder). Guest orchestra concerts at the Dvořák Prague Festival round off the RB festival summer: Sir John Eliot Gardiner brings Beethoven's Missa Solemnis to the Czech capital with his Monteverdi Choir and the Orchestre Revolutionnaire et Romantique. The Swedish Radio Symphony Orchestra will perform with its chief conductor Daniel Harding and the violin virtuoso Leonidas Kavakos.
